FEEDBACK POLICY

Noble Women's College, Manjeri, is committed to continuous improvement and excellence in all aspects of education. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) plays a crucial role in achieving this objective by implementing a robust feedback policy that gathers, analyzes, and acts upon the valuable insights of various stakeholders. This policy outlines the framework for collecting, analyzing, and utilizing feedback to enhance the academic quality and overall effectiveness of the College.

Stakeholder Feedback

The IQAC recognizes the significance of feedback from diverse stakeholders in driving institutional improvement. The College actively solicits feedback from the following key groups:

- ◆ Students: Regular feedback mechanisms are established through student satisfaction surveys, focus group discussions, classroom feedback forms, and suggestion boxes.
- ◆ Teachers: Faculty members are encouraged to provide feedback through self-appraisal reports, peer evaluation processes, and departmental meetings.
- ◆ Alumni: Surveys, online forums, and alumni meets are conducted to gather feedback on the relevance and effectiveness of their academic experiences.
- ◆ Employers: Feedback is sought from recruiters and industry professionals regarding the skills and competencies of graduates to ensure program alignment with current market demands.

Feedback Analysis and Action

- ◆ Collected feedback undergoes a rigorous analysis process:
- ◆ Quantitative data from surveys is statistically analyzed to identify trends and patterns.
- ◆ Qualitative data from open-ended responses and discussions is thematically analyzed to extract key insights.
- ◆ Action plans are formulated based on the analyzed feedback, addressing identified strengths, weaknesses, and areas for improvement.
- ◆ The IQAC monitors the implementation of action plans and evaluates their effectiveness.

Information Dissemination and Improvement

- ◆ The IQAC prepares periodic reports summarizing feedback analysis and action plans, which are submitted to the College Management and relevant authorities.
- ◆ Feedback and action plans are shared with stakeholders through various channels, including the College website, departmental meetings, and student forums.
- ◆ The IQAC regularly reviews and updates the feedback policy to ensure its effectiveness in driving continuous improvement.
