Report

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week celebrations, Noble Women's College, Manjeri organized a Poster Making Competition on 19 August 2026 from 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM at the Seminar Hall. The programme was jointly conducted by the Anti-Ragging Cell and Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) with the objective of creating awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging and promoting a safe, respectful and inclusive campus environment.

The competition was organized on the theme "Anti-Ragging Awareness." Students actively participated in the event and expressed their ideas and messages against ragging through creative posters. The posters highlighted important messages such as respect, empathy, unity, friendship, and standing against bullying and ragging.

The activity provided students with an opportunity to communicate social messages through art and creativity. It also encouraged students to understand their responsibility in preventing ragging and supporting a positive campus atmosphere.

The event successfully created awareness about the importance of preventing ragging and encouraged students to speak up, stand together and say no to ragging. The active participation of students made the programme meaningful and effective.
